

The 11th Building Bridges Seminar
Public Lectures – 23rd April 2012
Great Hall, King's College London, Strand, London, WC2R 2LS

Death, Resurrection and Human Destiny: Christian and Muslim Perspectives

0900 Welcome by Rick Trainor, Principal of King's College London, and introductory words from Archbishop Rowan Williams

0920 First pair of lectures

0920-0950 Death, Resurrection & Human Destiny in the Bible - The Rt Revd Prof Tom Wright, University of St Andrews

0950-1020 Death, Resurrection & Human Destiny in the Qur'an - Prof Mona Siddiqui, Edinburgh University

1020-1100 Q&A chaired by Revd Dr Dan Madigan SJ

1100 Break

1120 Second pair of lectures

1120-1150 Death, Resurrection & Human Destiny in the Christian Tradition - The Rt Revd Dr Geoffrey Rowell, Diocese in Europe

1150-1220 Death, Resurrection & Human Destiny in the Islamic Tradition - Prof Asma Afsaruddin, Indiana University

1220-1300 Q&A chaired by Dr Reza Shah-Kazemi

1300 Break

1400 Third pair of lectures

1400-1430 Dying Well: Muslim Faith and Practice - Dr Sajjad Rizvi, Exeter University

1430-1500 Dying Well: Christian Faith and Practice - The Revd Dr Harriet Harris, Edinburgh University

1500-1540 Q&A chaired by Professor Jane McAuliffe

1540-1600 Concluding reflections by Archbishop Rowan Williams

1600 End of lectures at King's College London